

“Developing my workforce has helped grow my business”

Skills to Advance

Make skills work for your business

“It gave me something of value to offer staff, which helped with retention and recruitment”

Dublin & Dún Laoghaire ETB (DDLETB) can help your business succeed by providing the support you need to develop your workforce through further education and training.

Why Skills to Advance?

Skills to Advance provides the means for you to upskill your staff and make your business more competitive.

Skills to Advance will support your business by providing:

- Accessible training opportunities which fit in around your business and work schedules
- Training relevant to your business needs
- Courses that respond to the changing nature of jobs and skills.

Skills to Advance offers affordable, practical training opportunities customised to a range of industry sectors and SMEs. It helps to upskill and reskill staff to capitalise on emerging opportunities and overcome business challenges.
